Atelier International de l'Architecture Construite - AIAC Hanoi 2025

- Research subject

- ❖ Vernacular architecture and urban design along the ancient Silk Road

- Hypotesis:

- ❖ Inadequacies of current urban housing typologies in several modern metropolises, neglecting the social and environmental real needs. The study of vernacular courtyard models can uncover principles that can improve the quality of modern life, promoting both social interaction and environmental sustainability.

- Methodology (mixed-methods approach)

- ❖ Qualitative and morpho-typological* analysis through field research

- ❖ Historical and contemporary* analysis: historical case studies of architectural and cultural relevance and modern housing project reinterpreting the vernacular models (Vietnamese, Chinese, Mediterranean and Balkans examples)

- ❖ Bibliographic* study
